

Third annual General Assembly meets in the Palais Pallavicini, Vienna.

Florent Louwage, President of the International Criminal Police Commission, makes a point during the debate on crime reporting. Psychiatrist Hans Hoff (l.) also spoke. A.P.Wadsworth (r.) of the "Manchester Guardian," was chairman of the panel discussion which also included Maarten Rooy, "Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant," and James Kerney Jr. of the "Trenton Times Newspapers."

E. M. Law Yone, Burma, speaks from the floor.

Jiro Enjoji of Japan and R. D. Rivett of Australia.

(above) Assembly audience included representatives of the press of five continents. (below) T. E. Henry, "Manchester Evening News", leads orchestra at Kahlenberg restaurant.

(left) Director Rose and Lester Markel, who presided as chairman.