

ALL the Institute meetings will take place in the Bellevue Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia. The general meetings will be in the Rose Garden room. The opening reception and buffet sessions will be in the hotel ballroom. Interpretation during the meetings will include English, French, German and Japanese.

Picture right:

An aerial view of the skyline of central Philadelphia, looking down the Benjamin Franklin Parkway. The U-shaped building in the centre is the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Institute affairs

Sunday, May 9

Morning Executive Board meeting
 Afternoon Executive Board meeting
 Noon Lunch for Executive Board members and wives
 Evening Reception

Monday, May 10

09.15 Official opening ceremony
 Chairman: William Block, Pittsburgh Post Gazette, chairman, IPI National Committee of the United States.
 Principal speaker: Nelson Rockefeller, Vice President, the United States of America
 Institute Affairs business session
 Mid-morning 13.30-15.30 Panel: Political reporting in the United States
 Chairman: Jean Marin (France) Publicis-Conseils
 Speakers: Yukio Matsuyama (Japan) Asahi Shimbun.
 16.00 Tour of Independence Hall to be followed by
 Evening reception given by Philadelphia newspapers
 Free

Tuesday, May 11

09.15-12.45 Panel: Kidnappings, terrorism and the Media
 Chairman: Sir Denis Hamilton (Britain) Times Newspapers.
 Speakers: Sir Robert Mark (Britain) Metropolitan Police. J. Bowyer Bell (United States) Columbia University.
 13.00 Lunch
 15.00 Panel: The Enemy within: Inside threats to press freedom
 Chairman: Ronald MacDonald (Australia) The Age
 Speakers: Claude Bellanger (France) Le

Philadelphia assembly May 10 to 12

Parisien Libéré. Windsor Clarke (Britain) The Westminster Press.
 Philip Foisie (United States) The Washington Post. Yasua Takeyama (Japan) Nihon Keizai Shimbun

Evening Performance by the Philadelphia Orchestra

Wednesday, May 12

09.15-10.45 Institute Affairs business session
 Reports on the activities of National Committees and reports from selected speakers
 11.00-12.15 Panel: Does the West have a monopoly on press freedom
 Chairman: Clayton Kirkpatrick (United States) Chicago Tribune
 Speakers: George Githii (Kenya) The Daily Nation. O. Bures (Czechoslovakia) The Democratic Journalist. M. G. K. Menon (India) Premier-Publications. Piero Ottone (Italy) Corriere Della Sera.
 12.30 Lunch
 15.00-17.30 Institute Affairs business session
 Evening Farewell banquet at the Franklin Institute

The following speakers to report on the state of press freedom in their countries have so far been announced. There will be 10 speakers in all.

ISRAEL: Ari Rath, Jerusalem Post.
 GREECE: Helen Vlachos, Kathimerini.
 PHILIPPINES: J. G. Quijano.
 SPAIN: Antonio Fontan, Diario de la Noche.
 ITALY: Giovanni Giovanni, La Stampa.
 LATIN AMERICA: John Fercsey, Interco.

Changes to earlier announcements:
 The panel "Government subsidies to the press" has been cancelled.
 Arrigo Levi, La Stampa, will now be unable to speak in the panel "Does the West have a monopoly on press freedom?"